> and Bulls Boost Prices Confidently.

Note—Quolations reflect closing sales Friday, Jan. 80.

New York, Jan. 30.—The reactionary movement of the week was checked definitely today and prices rose in spirited fashion. Builtsh traders bid up prices confidently. The optimistic feeling in foreign markets was reflected in purchases for foreign account which assisted the rise.

Denial from Washington of recent reports that important developments in the Mesican situation were imminent removed an obstacle to builtsh speculation. Gains of one to two points were well distributed through the list. The decision of the federal courts against the railroads in the Missouri rate case led to seiling of some western railroad stocks, and Missouri Pacific resected a point.

whom they led to safety after the fed-eral rout of Ofinaga, arrived in Tor-reon on Thursday, January 22, and received a great evation from the fed-eral gastrinon there according to let-fers received in El Paso from Saltillo by federal sympathiners.

The travel stained troops led by the relunteer commuders were accorded signal military honors, it is reported. Thousands of the federal force now occupying Torroon were lined up and Orosco's command marched between. Orosco's command marched between the files, while fines dipped in sa-lute. Orosco and Caraveo were com-plimented for their "bravery" by Gen-Huerta in telegrams from Mexico Twenty-eight carloads of federal Twenty-eight carloads of federal soldiers, 2000 men altogrether, arrived at Monterey last week, according to the letters received here. They were sent immediately to Torreon, bringing the total force there up to 12,000 men. Strong defences in the way of hidden mines, fortifications, trenches and the like are being constructed at Torreon, It is reported, and every indication is that the battle to be fought there soon will be the biggest and bloodiest of the revolution.
